Packard, Carson Statement on Harmony Montgomery Case

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONCORD N.H. – New Hampshire House Speaker Sherman Packard (R-Londonderry) and Senate President Sharon Carson (R-Londonderry) released the following statement regarding the New Hampshire Supreme Court's decision in the case involving the murder of Harmony Montgomery:

Speaker Sherman Packard:

"What happened to Harmony Montgomery was a horrific crime that shocked people across our state. I am confident the Attorney General's Office will continue to vigorously pursue justice for Harmony."

Senate President Sharon Carson:

"A jury found Adam Montgomery guilty in the face of overwhelming evidence. I urge the Attorney General to retry him for this heinous crime and bring some measure of justice to a little girl who should still be with us today."
