Senate President Carson congratulates Senator Avard on Community Champion Award

CONCORD, NH – Senate President Sharon Carson (R-Londonderry) released the following statement congratulating Senator Kevin Avard (R-Nashua) on receiving the Community Champion Award from the New Hampshire Community Loan Fund in recognition for his work to reduce housing costs across New Hampshire:

“I am incredibly proud of Senator Avard and his ongoing dedication to finding solutions that make housing more affordable for Granite State families. Families are the foundation of our communities, and his efforts underscore the importance of building strong relationships with those we serve.”

Senator Avard on receiving this honor: “I’m honored to receive the Community Champion Award. Families having access to safe housing that is affordable is a top priority, and this term I am focused on reducing property taxes and removing unnecessary regulations that limit home ownership for all constituents, especially those that are most vulnerable. Resident-owned communities (ROC) are a key part of expanding housing in New Hampshire, and I’m proud of the progress being made. Thank you to the New Hampshire Community Loan Fund for this recognition and for their ongoing efforts in ROC.”
