Senators Sharon Carson and David Watters Joint Statement on NH Air National Guard Deployment

CONCORD, NH – Senate President Sharon Carson (R-Londonderry) and Senator David Watters (D-Dover) released the following joint statement regarding the activation of the New Hampshire Air National Guard’s 157th Air Refueling Wing. The Senate will continue to support our men and women who fight to preserve our freedoms:

“Our service members put their safety and well-being on the line to protect our country. We pray that our men and women who serve in the New Hampshire Air National Guard’s 157th Air Refueling Wing come back safely,” Senator Carson said. She added, “We remain committed to supporting those who serve and their families as they defend our freedoms both here and abroad.”

Senator Watters said, “The New Hampshire National Guard stands ready to defend our freedoms whenever the nation calls. They have once again stepped forward, deploying as part of Operation Epic Fury to help carry out this critical mission and uphold the safety and security of our nation.”

He continued, “Our thoughts are with the New Hampshire Air National Guard’s 157th Air Refueling Wing in their deployment and we thank them for their service.”
